

Oral History Workshops

Alexander Turnbull Library Outreach Services offer workshops for people considering using oral history in their work, community or personal projects. Auckland workshops are taught by Megan Hutching, freelance oral historian, and Lynette Shum, Oral History Adviser, and are held in the National Library Building, Stanley Street, Parnell

All equipment is provided and all participants receive comprehensive guides and resources and a certificate of attendance.

Workshops elsewhere and Māori-English bilingual group courses are also available.

The Essentials of Oral History Research

This is a two day course

Day One: Introduction to Oral History

Saturday 14 May 2016

8.45am-4.30pm

An introduction to oral history methodology. How to plan an oral history project, choose the best equipment, achieve clear audio recordings, select informants, follow ethical procedures, develop questioning techniques, process oral history, and make the material available for use. Bring a recorder if you have one you intend to use for recording. Exercises to be completed before Day Two will be discussed.

Day Two: Recording Seriously

Saturday 18 June 2016

8.45am-4.30pm

Recording Seriously builds on Day One: Introduction to Oral History, reviewing work completed and covering in more detail interview techniques, project planning and technical, ethical, and legal issues. Participation in Day One is a prerequisite

$300 ($220)* for both days
