

Oral History Workshops

Alexander Turnbull Library Outreach Services offer workshops for people considering using oral history in their work, community or personal projects. Auckland Essentials of Oral History Research is taught by Megan Hutching, freelance oral historian, and Lynette Shum, Oral History Adviser, and Abstracting Oral History is taught by Judith Fyfe, lawyer and oral historian, and Lynette Shum. All workshops will be held in the National Library Building, Stanley Street, Parnell.

All equipment is provided and all participants receive comprehensive guides and resources and a certificate of attendance.

An abstract is a comprehensive time-coded summary, which serves as a guide to the oral history researcher. An abstracting workshop will not be offered as part of this series. For this, workshops elsewhere, and Māori-English bilingual group courses, funding and any other further information, please contact us:

The Essentials of Oral History Research

This is a two day course

Day One: Introduction to Oral History
Saturday 18 March 2017
8.45am-4.30pm

An introduction to oral history methodology. How to plan an oral history project, choose the best equipment, achieve clear audio recordings, select informants, follow ethical procedures, develop questioning techniques, process oral history, and make the material available for use. Bring a recorder if you have one you intend to use for recording. Exercises to be completed before Day Two will be discussed.

Day Two: Recording Seriously
Saturday 8 April 2017
8.45am-4.30pm

Recording Seriously builds on Day One: Introduction to Oral History, reviewing work completed and covering in more detail interview techniques, project planning and technical, ethical, and legal issues. Participation in Day One is a prerequisite

$300 ($220)* for both days

Limit: 12

Abstracting Oral History
Saturday and Sunday

10 & 11 June 2017 8.45am-1pm

The abstract is a comprehensive time-coded summary, which serves as a guide to the oral history researcher. Here is an opportunity to practice the comprehension and editing skills needed to compile a reliable and usable abstract. Completion of an Essentials of Oral History Research or a recent equivalent introductory course is recommended but not required.

$180 ($140)* Limit: 8
