

Oral History Workshops

Alexander Turnbull Library Outreach Services offer workshops for people considering using oral history in their work, community or personal projects. The Wellington workshops will be taught by Judith Fyfe, lawyer and oral historian, and Lynette Shum, Oral History Adviser, and will be held at the National Library, corner of Aitken and Molesworth Streets, Thorndon, Wellington

All equipment is provided and all participants receive comprehensive guides and resources and a certificate of attendance.

An abstract is a comprehensive time-coded summary, which serves as a guide to the oral history researcher. Workshops elsewhere, and Māori-English bilingual group courses with Taina Tangaere McGregor, funding and any other further information, please contact us:

The Essentials of Oral History Research

This is a two day course

Day One: Introduction to Oral History

Saturday 24 June 2017

8.45am-4.30pm

An introduction to oral history methodology. How to plan an oral history project, choose the best equipment, achieve clear audio recordings, select informants, follow ethical procedures, develop questioning techniques, process oral history, and make the material available for use. Bring a recorder if you have one you intend to use for recording. Exercises to be completed before Day Two will be discussed.

Day Two: Recording Seriously

Saturday 22 July 2017

8.45am-4.30pm

Recording Seriously builds on Day One: Introduction to Oral History, reviewing work completed and covering in more detail interview techniques, project planning and technical, ethical, and legal issues. Participation in Day One is a prerequisite

$300 ($220)* for both days

Limit: 12

Abstracting Oral History

Saturday and Sunday

12 & 13 August 2017 8.45am-1pm

The abstract is a comprehensive time-coded summary, which serves as a guide to the oral history researcher. Here is an opportunity to practice the comprehension and editing skills needed to compile a reliable and usable abstract. Completion of an Essentials of Oral History Research or a recent equivalent introductory course is recommended but not required.

$180 ($140)* Limit: 8

Oral History at the Alexander Turnbull Library

The Alexander Turnbull Library

- is part of the National Library of New Zealand / Te Puna Matauranga o Aotearoa
- collects and preserves interviews and other recordings
- provides a reference service and access to researchers
- provides advice and resources for those working in oral history throughout New Zealand
- provides training workshops throughout New Zealand
- hires recording and transcribing equipment to oral historians in the Wellington area
- promotes professional, ethical and technical standards in oral history recording and archiving

The oral history collection is New Zealand's largest, comprising recordings of more than 15,000 interviews and events. Interloan can be arranged. The Library welcomes deposits and donations of recordings of New Zealand and Pacific material.
