Accommodation

Accommodation is available at Te Puni Village, on the Kelburn Campus. A single room, with a shared bathroom, is $66.47 per night. Continental breakfast can also be ordered for an additional $10.00.

Accommodation at Te Puni should be booked and paid for directly at:

<https://www.shortstaysanz.com/te-puni-village>

Please use the conference code STOUT2020. All delegates travelling for this conference will receive a 10% saving when adding the Promotional booking code via the website.

Te Puni is a few minutes' walk to the Alan MacDiarmid conference rooms, including the Laby lecture theatre. Come in Gate 7 and the main entrance to the Alan MacDiarmid building is next to Wishbone Café.

Car Parking

Free car parking is available on Saturday and Sunday in the staff car park, Gate 7, at the bottom of the ring road. There is limited car parking on Friday (pay and display) on the street, or at the top of the Cable Car, Upland Road, Kelburn (Wilson's parking, expensive).

Disability access is available at the back of the Laby/Cotton Building. If you drive in Gate 7 and around the road up to the top staff car parking area (harbour side), there are parks available and a ramp access into the building, and to through to the main corridor. The conference venue rooms are all on one level. Alternatively, there is access from the front of the Alan MacDiarmid building by Wishbone Café, with only a couple of steps.

Please email Debbie: Deborah.levy@vuw.ac.nz if you have any special requirements regarding health, safety, or diet. Vegetarian, vegan and gluten free will be catered for automatically.
