

ORAL HISTORY WORKSHOPS

Alexander Turnbull Library Outreach Services offer workshops for people considering using oral history in their work, community or personal projects.

Our training is based on the principles enshrined in the National Oral History Association of New Zealand (NOHANZ)'s Code of Ethical and Technical Practice, and international archival standards.

The Christchurch workshops will be taught by Helen Frizzell, oral historian, and Lynette Shum, Oral History Advisor, and will be held at Tūranga, Christchurch City Libraries, 60 Cathedral Square, Christchurch

All equipment is provided and all participants receive comprehensive guides and resources and a certificate of attendance.

For further information including registration, other workshops or funding, please contact:

ORAL HISTORY

Oral history is a record of information gathered in oral form, usually by electronic means, as a result of a planned interview. The purpose of oral history is to create a spoken record where none exists or to supplement existing records for future researchers.

The Essentials of Oral History Research

This is a two day course, with about a month between days.

Day One: Introduction to Oral History

Saturday 10 October 2020

8.45am-4.30pm

An introduction to oral history methodology. How to plan an oral history project, choose the best equipment, achieve clear audio recordings, select informants, follow ethical procedures, develop questioning techniques, process oral history, and make the material available for use. Bring a recorder if you have one you intend to use for recording. Exercises to be completed before Day Two will be discussed.

Day Two: Recording Seriously

Saturday 7 November 2020

8.45am-4.30pm

Recording Seriously builds on Day One, reviewing work completed and covering in more detail interview techniques, project planning and technical, ethical, and legal issues.

$300 ($220)* for both days

Limit: 12
